The University of California, Irvine, is pleased to offer you the ASPIRE Summer Program at UCI! With top of the line facilities and distinguished faculty from the Samueli School of Engineering and Donald Bren School of Information and Computer Sciences, this 2-week program gives high school students hands on experience with a multitude of engineering and computer science disciplines, including app development, programming, and engineering design.

PROGRAM BENEFITS
- 2-week program
- Hands-on training in coding, designing, and prototype testing
- Create your own product
- UCI faculty and student mentors
- Guest speakers & lab tours
- Advising and support to prepare for college admissions
- Program cost includes: housing (session 3), meals, transportation for program activities, supplies, materials, t-shirt, and certificate of completion
- COST: Session 1 & 3: $1,795
  Session 2:       $3,015

Scholarships available to cover cost for applicants who need financial assistant.

ELIGIBILITY
- Current high school sophomore or junior
- 3.0 minimum GPA (unweighted)
- Available for full program, including housing on campus at UCI
- Thirst for knowledge—no experience needed!

LEARN MORE & APPLY ONLINE AT
sites.uci.edu/aspire

APPLICATION DEADLINE
Friday, March 2nd at 5PM PST

CONTACT INFORMATION
Program Director: Ernest Garrison
Email: oai@uci.edu
Phone: (949) 824 - 6569