Director, Center for Emeriti & Retirees

Jeri I. Frederick

Dear Colleagues (All UCI Emeriti and Spouses):

Fall is also the time in which we ask you to join the UCI Emeriti Association as a dues-paying member. It was only a couple of years after I retired officially that I became aware of the many ways in which UCIEA is protecting my interests and promoting activities that enhance the opportunities of emeriti. Thus I hope you will send in your dues (which are well-spent) and indicate if you have interest in becoming more involved in the organization.

UCIEA is, as always, sponsoring a variety of activities this fall that you might enjoy. As a political scientist, I find the current presidential election to be the strangest in my lifetime. My colleague, Professor Marty Wattenberg, will share his insights on the election with us on October 10 at 3:00 p.m. at the Newkirk Alumni Center. Marty has researched the presidency and elections for a long time and perhaps can make some sense out of this one! The title of his talk is "How Donald Trump Won the Nomination and Handed the Election to the Democrats". I hope he knows something that many of us are uncertain about.

Provost and EVC Enrique Lavernia will join us for a discussion on November 10 at 3:30 pm in the Student Center Ballroom. He will address issues of concern to emeriti as well as broader campus issues and will welcome questions. The timing of these two events should be a bit easier than usual to remember: 10/10 at 3 p.m. and 11/10 at 3:30p.m. There are also walks, presentations and other activities that are coordinated by the Center for Emeriti and Retirees (CER) and co-sponsored by UCIEA that may be viewed at the CER website: <http://retirees.uci.edu> Join us for some of these activities!

UCIEA leadership is also active in other domains to attend to emeriti concerns. I serve on the campus' Academic Planning Group; others are on the Senate Council on Faculty Welfare, Academic Freedom and Diversity. We attend the biannual meetings of the UC Systemwide Emeriti Association (CUCEA), which monitors policies and advocates our interests with the Office of the President and the state government, especially on issues such as health care benefits.

We are out there negotiating arrangements for you in such areas as campus parking and retirement housing. In Trumpean rhetoric, we will make you the best deals! All this for only $30 for a one year membership. The money is well spent! Please complete the dues form to receive a tax-deductible receipt and mail the form to UCI EA, 450 Alumni Ct., Irvine, CA 92697-1225.

You may visit our website at <http://sites.uci.edu/emeraliti/> to view newsletters and event information. As noted at the website, the UCI EA Executive Committee meets the first Thursday of each month at 10 a.m. in the boardroom of the Newkirk Center. We invite all interested emeriti to provide us with your feedback.
