To: All Faculty/Staff (including SOM at the Medical Center)
Subject: January 27th Symposium – Information Technologies in Research

Computing and Information Technologies (IT) play a critical and evolving role in University research and scholarly pursuits. Whether you consider yourself an expert or not, if you use IT in conducting research, we invite you to join us in discussing this important topic:

What: UCI Research Cyberinfrastructure (RCI) symposium
WHEN: January 27th; 9 AM – 4 PM (Light refreshments at 8:40 AM)
WHERE: Calit2 Auditorium
SPONSORS: UCI Research Cyberinfrastructure Vision Workgroup and the UCI Data Sciences Initiative

Faculty from each school will present and lead panel discussions exploring current and future needs for networking, computation, storage, staff services, training, and other technology areas in research. UCLA, UC Berkeley, Amazon, Microsoft and UCI staff will present on additional research IT topics. The day will conclude with a presentation and round table discussion regarding UCI’s future vision for Research Cyberinfrastructure.

Come for any or all of the day’s events and contribute to our planning process!

PANEL LEADERS: Ali Mortazavi, Suzanne Sandmeyer (Biology and Medicine), Said Elghobashi, Fillip Furche (Engineering and Physical Sciences), John Crawford and David Theo Goldberg (Arts and Humanities), Bryan Sykes and John Hipp (Social Ecology, Business, Education, and Law)

REGISTRATION: sites.uci.edu/rci/symposium

QUESTIONS: Allen Schiano (schiano@uci.edu, x4-2829).

We look forward to seeing you on January 27th!
