UCI School of Humanities Career Development & Experiential Learning

Hello Humanities Anteaters!

We hope you are well as we wrap up the winter quarter!

Here are some upcoming opportunities you may find of interest!

NEW COURSE FOR SPRING - HUMAN 95 PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT - Space still available!

The UCI School of Humanities is offering a brand-new course in spring quarter to introduce Humanities undergraduates to various field study and experiential learning opportunities in Humanities and at UCI. The course will include internship and research exploration and preparation activities designed to equip students with the skills necessary for career readiness and professional development. Enrolled students will receive 2 units of workload credit.

2023 UCI UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM - MAY 19 - The call for presenters is open!

All undergraduate students who participated in a UCI faculty-mentored research project or creative activity within the last year are invited to register to present at this year's Undergraduate Research Symposium on May 19, 2023. Receiving a UROP Award is not required to present; however, all students must register to present. Review the UROP Symposium website for more details and to register. Registration Deadline: April 17, 2023.

2023 UCI UNDERGRADUATE HISTORY CONFERENCE - MAY 25 - The application is open!

The Undergraduate History Conference is an annual showcase of undergraduate research on history. Students can present work they have done on their own or in a class through a variety of mediums: oral presentations, posters, videos, websites, and more! Any piece of research that concerns history and uses historical methods is welcome at the conference and undergraduate students from all majors are welcome to apply! Learn more and apply here. Application deadline: April 9, 2023.

UCDC FOR HUMANITIES STUDENTS - APRIL 26 AT 12PM

OPPORTUNITY FROM THE UCI LABOR CENTER:

Labor Summer comes to Orange County! The UCI Labor Center is coordinating Labor Summer internships for UCI students and partnering with the UCB Labor Center for orientation. Here's what Labor Summer looks like for UCI undergraduate and graduate students:

- 8-week, full-time, PAID internship with an Orange County labor union or community organization
- Two tracks: Organizing Track and Research & Policy Track
- 1 week of orientation at UC Berkeley (June 20 - 24)
- 7 weeks at internship site in Orange County (40 hours per week; June 26 - August 10)
- 2 training sessions at UCI during internship
- 2 - 3 mentor conversations
- August 11 graduation in Oakland

For the orientation week at UCB, the UCI Labor Center will cover travel expenses to/from UCB and provide room and board. The UCI Labor Center will also cover travel expenses to/from Oakland for the August 11 graduation. If you are graduating in June, you are eligible to apply for Labor Summer.

Please see FAQ and other information on the UC Berkeley Labor Center Labor Summer webpage.
