

UCI School of Humanities
Career Development
& Experiential Learning

Attention Humanities Students!

Are you interested in professional development or experiential learning opportunities, but are not sure where to begin?

Would you like to work on your resume, interview, and job search skills?

Then consider enrolling in Humanities 95 Professional Development
this Winter Quarter!

This course introduces Humanities undergraduates to various field study and experiential learning opportunities in Humanities and at UCI. Students will partake in informative and engaging workshops hosted by the Division of Career Pathways (DCP), the Undergraduate Research Opportunities Program (UROP), the Study Abroad Center, the ANTrepreneur Center, the Office of Civic Engagement, and more! Students will also hear directly from directors of School of Humanities programs, and will interact with various tools and technologies to improve their resume, work on interviewing skills, and establish their network through interpersonal relations!
