Dear Humanities Students,

The School of Humanities and UCI Law recently announced a groundbreaking collaboration designed to help UCI Humanities students jump-start their legal careers.

If you are interested in learning more about these opportunities or about applying to UCI Law, this is a reminder to attend the information session this Saturday, December 2, 2023. At this session, you will learn about the UCI Law admissions process, hear from current students about their experience in law school, and go on a tour of the law school led by the Admissions Ambassadors. Following the presentation and tour, there will be a Q&A specifically for those interested in the School of Humanities Scholarship Program and the 3+3 Articulated Program. Follow the link below to register.
