

A Bibliography of Sasanian and Arab-Sasanian Numismatics (1793-2010)

Touraj Daryaee & Andrea Gariboldi
UC Irvine & University of Ravenna

e-Sasanika 20
2012

The following article attempts to provide a comprehensive bibliography of Sasanian and Arab-Sasanian numismatics for the past two centuries. This collaborative work was undertaken by Daryaee who collected the initial list during his stay at the American Numismatic Society, NY and by Gariboldi who is a numismatist and current on numismatic literature from Ravenna. The bibliography not only includes the works published in the West, but also from the Caucasus, Iran, Iraq, India and China. Because of the diversity and sheer number of Sasanian coinage, they have been the object of fascination, accumulation and study for the past two centuries. For a good guide for the importance of Sasanian numismatics for history the authors refer the readers to the recent publication by Gariboldi, Sasanian Coins and History: The Civic Numismatic Collection of Milan, Sasanika 3, Costa Mesa, 2010.
